

Elanco Animal Health: Company Profile

About Elanco

- Established in 1954 (a division of Eli Lilly and Company)
- A world leader in developing animal health products and services that enhance animal health, wellness and performance
- New global headquarters in Greenfield, Indiana
- Net sales of more than $1 billion in 2009
- More than 2,300 employees worldwide
- Offices in more than 40 countries
- Conduct business in more than 75 countries

Our Vision

- Food and companionship enriching life

Our Mission

- We make life sciences work better for people by transforming animal protein production and companion animal care

Food Animal Business Overview

- Helping contribute to a safe, affordable and abundant food supply
 - Disease treatment and management
 - Production efficiency
 - Food safety

Companion Animal Business Overview

- Strengthening the human-pet bond
 - Parasite control
 - Separation anxiety

Elanco Animal Health: Causes and Commitments

Fighting World Hunger

- Pursuing technologies to create a safe, affordable and abundant global food supply
- Partnering with Heifer[®] International to end hunger and create sustainable agricultural models worldwide
- Participating in the Alliance to End Hunger
- Partnering with Kids Against Hunger[®] to feed Haiti

Agricultural Leadership

- Partnering with organizations such as the FFA and 4-H to nurture skill, responsibility and growth through agricultural education
- Supporting industry associations and producer groups to advance agricultural education

The Human-Animal Bond

- Assisting veterinarians in helping animals live longer, healthier, high-quality lives
- Partnering with the Purdue Center for the Human-Animal Bond

The Environment

- Using new and existing technologies to create products that reduce the environmental impact of feeding the world
- Helping to provide more food with fewer resources and less cropland
- Reducing the volume of animal waste through increased efficiency

Community Service

- Helping people and organizations in the communities in which we live and work
- Giving via the Lilly Foundation
- Participating in Elanco Day of Service
- Contributing to Hope House and Food Pantry (Hancock County, Ind.)

Elanco Animal Health

2500 Innovation Way
Corporate Affairs, EL05
Greenfield, IN 46140

